The Endless Renaissance

Bass Museum of Art, Miami Beach

UNTIL 17 MARCH

www.bassmuseum.org

It has been said more than once that all art was at some point contemporary, but this show at the Bass Museum drives the point home with a series of solo projects by contemporary artists responding to the Renaissance. Opening with a display of the German artist Hans-Peter Feldmann's reconfigured objects and images, the series moves on to Eija-Liisa Ahtila's reconstruction of the common Renaissance theme of the Annunciation and Ged Quinn's reworking of pastoral scenes. The show's goal is to ask how historical and contemporary art can be seen as part of a continuous dialogue, with artists constantly looking backwards for motivation.
